

JV Quartet hitting the right notes

SABAH jazz group, the JV Quartet (pic), consisting of well known musician-lawyer, June Tan, composer and musician Vincent Chin, twins Suro Rahman and Suro Ahmadi and the very talented Gina Panizales, who specialises in jazz, rhythm and blues, gospel music, Latino and Motown music, is going places.

The ability of the JV Quartet to synergise, harmonise and improvise on their musical talents is something that music lovers will find delightful and entertaining.

Gina, for instance is multi-talented and can take her audiences through a repertoire of songs and different beats. Having performed in Hong Kong, Singapore, Jakarta, South America, Australia, UK, Istanbul and Kuala Lumpur, Gina knows exactly what pleases her audiences.

June Tan, is without doubt a pianist with a soul for music. Her stints include contracts at the Hilton in Kuala Lumpur, Sutera Harbour Resort and Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort.

Vincent, who has won a prize for the best original composition in the Asian Music Festival in Japan, is the saxophonist in the band and has also performed at Sutera Harbour Resort and Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort.

Twins Rahman and Ahmadi have been musicians since the late 70s and were members of the "Laser Beam" Rock group.

Their musical flexibility allows the twins to alternate between playing bass and drums and as the JV Quartet, they have played in the leading 5-star hotels in Sabah.

The JV Quartet is now performing at the Aru Casual Dining in Tanjung Aru every Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
